Dear Community Partner:

This year the Greater New Haven Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) celebrates 100 years of advocacy in the Greater New Haven Community! As part of the celebration, we will host the Centennial Freedom Fund Dinner on Thursday, May 11, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. at the Omni Hotel at Yale in New Haven, Connecticut. Featuring a dynamic keynote speaker and phenomenal entertainment, this event will fund the Branch's advocacy and service programs targeting communities of color. We are seeking your support as we work toward fulfilling the NAACP's vision of a society in which all individuals have equal rights without discrimination based on race.

For the last 100 years the Greater New Haven Branch of the NAACP has been a staunch advocate for communities of color. This year we celebrate – 100 Years Rooted in Strength, Justice and Equality – while being overtly reminded that the struggle for a greater nation must continue. Important issues like healthcare, economic opportunity, education and civic engagement can only be overcome through a unified and strategic approach that involves engaged citizens and unhindered access to voting. As a member of this community, your support is exactly what is needed to help us proclaim this message.

With your support of the Centennial Freedom Fund Dinner, together, we will continue to overcome challenges, celebrate our victories, and prepare for the next 100 years. Enclosed you will find more information to purchase tickets to the dinner and advertise in the Centennial Souvenir Journal. Please signify your support of the Greater New Haven Branch of the NAACP by completing and returning your forms today.

We thank you for your consideration and support. Let us recommit to another year of action as partners in the fight for justice and equality. I am optimistic that, together, we will stand firm to protect our civil liberties for this generation and the generations to come.

Sincerely,

Doris J. Dumas
President
