The Greater New Haven Branch of the NAACP is offering scholarships to graduating seniors from the Greater New Haven area who have demonstrated academic excellence, community service, and leadership.

Some of the indicators of academic excellence, community service, and leadership include, but are not to be limited to, the following:

- Attainment of a 3.0 or higher un-weighted GPA as of February 2018
- Verifiable history of volunteerism in community or religious-based organizations
- Verifiable history of participation in school-sponsored clubs/teams/organizations

We are pleased to offer the following opportunities for students:

- Two (2) Dr. Susan Moore Lincoln Scholarships each for $1,000
- One (1) $1,000.00 Award from Southern Connecticut State University

The scholarship recipients will be recognized at the Greater New Haven NAACP's Freedom Fund Dinner, which will be held on Thursday, May 10, 2018 at the Omni Hotel. Scholarship recipients must attend the dinner.

The application will be distributed to high school counselors and posted on the NAACP webpage on February 2018. The application must be completed in full and returned to the NAACP office postmarked no later than April 6, 2018. Mail applications to:
